Stanton Center & Theater

“The theater at Stanton Center is an intimate, well-managed, and well-appointed venue, and its location on the historic Custom House Plaza—near the Old Fisherman’s Wharf—made it the perfect place to hold our history conferences.”

—David Woodbury, Director of the Central Coast Conference

“We rented the Stanton Center twice: once for our Season 3 Launch Party and then for our New Canon Theatre Lab, New Works Festival. Both experiences were lovely. Our patrons and audiences were happy to know a unique, intimate venue with a theatre like this is smack in the heart of downtown Monterey with ample parking and restaurants nearby. The volunteer staff were kind and helpful. The theatre for our New Works readings worked perfectly for us! We hope to return soon and as we both continue to shine a light on nonprofits working together, uplifting each other in the arts.”

- Justine Stock, Managing Director/Co-Founder, New Canon Theatre
